

EXAMINATION PERIOD

University examination shall be held after completion of each Semester i.e. even semester is on the month of December and odd semester is on the month of June. The medium of instruction including counseling and examination shall be English only. Internal assessment (if applicable) shall be made to ascertain the exposure of the students to appear at the University examination.